President Roosevelt spoke as follows: President Roosevelt spoke as follows; "We mean today to commemorate the spot on which occurred one of those memorable scenes in accordance with which the whole future history of nations is molded. Here were spoken words that flow through immediate time, and that will fly carough that portion of eternity recorded in the history of our race. Here was sounded the keynote of the struggle which, after convulsing the nation, made it in ter convulsing the nation, made it in fact what it had been only in name, at once united and free. It is eminently fitting that this monument given by the women of this city in commemoration of the great debate that there took place be recalled by the men whose deeds made good the words of Abraham Lincoln and the soldlers of the Civil war, (Cheers and applause.) The word was mighty, but had it not been for the word the deeds could not have taken places. "I have but a moment here. I could not resist the chance that was offered me to stop and dedicate this monument, for great though we regerd Abraham Lincoln, my countrymen, the future will out him on an even higher pinnacle than we have put him. (Appleuse.) In all history I do not believe that there is to be found an orator whose speeches will last as enduringly as certain of the speeches of Lincoln. And in all history, with the sole exception of the man who founded the republic. I do not tory, with the sole exception of the man who founded the republic. I do not think there will be found another statesman so great and so single-hearted in his devotion to the welfare of his people. We cannot too highly honor him. The highest way in which we can honor him is to see that our homage is not only words that to loyalty of words we join loyalty of the heart, and that we pay honor to the memory of Abraham Lincoln by so conducting ourselves, by so carrying ourselves as selves, by so carrying ourselves as citizens of this republic, that we shall hand down undiminished to our children and our children's children the heritage we received from men wh upheld the statesmanship of Lincol

EMOTION IN MEN.

Dr. Helen Thompson Proves it is Stronger in Them than to Women.

Chicago, June J .- Men are more emo tional than women as well as being sutiveness, Miss Helen Bradford Thompshe says after two years of experiment. with 25 young men and 25 young men students.

Miss Thompson is one of the leading psychologists of the country. She completed her work in experimental psychology at the University of Chicago two years ago, and is now the director of the pyschological laboratory at Mount Holyoke college for women Massachusetts. Miss Thompson's experiments were made in psychological liaboratory at the University of Chi-cago and the results of her work have just been announced in the advance sheets from a work published by the University of Chicago Press, entitled "The Mental Traits of Sex."

Seven different sets of tests were applied to each of the 50 "subjects," and Miss Thompson spent about 1,000 hours in making them.

The general results of her tests, Miss Thompson deciarcs, show that the su-perior ingenuity and superior strength of men are not due to "sexual differ-ences of mind," but to the influences of society as now organized especially in the fact that the boy is taught to be independent in thought and action, is encouraged in all kinds of outdoor ex-ercises, while the girl is taught obedi-ence, dependence and deference and to

BIG FAILURE IN CANADA. A. E. Ames & Co. of Toronto Close

Their Doors. Toronto, Ont., June 2.—A. E. Ames & Co., one of the leading firms of bankers and brokers in Canada, closed their doors today. Their failure was due to heavy declines in Canadian securities, which have been extensively dealt in pose to help one another should a Eu-ropenan power threaten the sovereignty on New York and Boston exchanges, as well as on the exchanges here and at Montreal. It is stated that when mar-ket conditions have become gettled and the securities held by the company and their customers reach figures approximating something like their actual value, the assests of the company wur fully offset their liabilities.

The stocks in which Ames & Co. and heir clients have been largely interesied in are Dominion Steel common, pur-chased around $70 and which is now selling at $15 per share; Schiosa-Shef-field and other industrials, purchases at figures much higher than their pres-ent price; Twin City, which has defined from 128 to 92, was another store After a meeting of the me pers of the firm it was occided to sus

On this announcement a panic ensued on the stock exchange. Hundrede ersons gathered in front of the offices of the company, clamoring for ormation as to the extent of the firm's labilities. The last statement of the savings bank department of the firm showed $200,000 on deposit. It is im-posible to figure the firm's total liability at the present time, owing to the extensive fluctuations in prices of secuities in which the company and its clients are heavily interested.

It is stated on good authority that Mr. Ames has put a million dolars in the business and the other members o the firm, R. Tudhope, E. D. Fraser and A. E. Wallace, sums aggregating nearly the same amount. It is known that one of the Toronto banks recently advanced $209,000 to Ames & Co., in the hope that that amount would be suffi-cient to tide over the affairs of the

It is understood that the coal properties will also pass into the hands of the prospective owners, or falling in this Sena-tor Clark will at least hold the con-trolling interest in the coal properties. Some five weeks ago a thorough inspection of the property was made by the San Pedro local engineering force, and it is understood that it made a very flattering report of the proposition. While the rolling stock is comparatively ancient the track was report. ed to be fairly good, and could be put into first class condition at a comparatively small outlay. The Sanpete Valley road connects with the Oregon Short Line at Nephi which point it runs down to th mines at Sterling, passing Eph and Manti. The length of th line is 43 miles, while a branch of 11 miles runs from Nephi to Cooper to the stone quarries. Aside from the coal tonnage and the agricultural products of fruitful Sanpete the road handles the famous brown stone from the Mt. Nebo quarries, the stone which was used in the construction of the Descret News building nd other structures in this city an elsewhere. The quarry traffic is factor in the carnings of the road ar for the coming year it promises to be better than ever. The coal possibilities of the road are qual to any in the district and will e the means of at once supplying the an Pedro with fuel for motive purposes. Undoubtedly these mines will be developed and a big coal camp wil spring up at Sterling which will give Manti a helping hand in the way of

BLUE SKY SEEN IN KANSAS CITY

Rain Ceased, Sun Being Visible for First Time in a Week.

KAW RIVER HAS FALLEN.

City Had a Narrow Escape From Food Shortage-Wretchedge . . Pe Mental Than Physical.

Kansas City, Mo., June 2.-Blue sky was visible above Kansas City this ifternoon at 4 o'clock. The rains have nded, the sun was visible for the first time in a week, and for this and other reasons it is thought that the great langers of the flood are past,

The waters of the Kaw river have allen eight inches today, and tonight are steadily declining at the rate of socut half an inch per hour. In the Missouri the high stage of 35 feet is still maintained, but this is due to the rise which has been coming down the Micsouri proper, and has been able to offset the fall of the Kaw. It is the water of the latter stream, however, it at has caused all the destruction in his city and in Kansas City, Kan., and with it at a normal stage, business h Kansas City will shortly resume usual conditions.

The city has, by a narrow margin

scaped a serious shortage in food; has acced the peril of fire, utterly helpless to avert its consequences, and has suf-fered millions of dollars of damarge to property, and sustained a loss in life that in all probability never will be accurately measured, and now it is of better things.

Tonight the situation shows improve ment on almost every side. The waters are falling, the waterworks will resume operations, the gas has been turned into the mains one more, and while there is no superabundance of cod, there is no immediate danger of serious shortage. The city has cared for her own i royal fashion, and is abundantly able to do so still, but there is not suffi-cient food on hand to permit the relief committees and the municipal officers of feel easy over the outlook. Pro-lations from outside will be cordially relcomed, and while there is no direcrecessity, there is urgent need. The ransportation facilities at the presen-ime are so limited that not much reight can be brought in at a time nd there is danger that the demand tock on hand is speedily replenished

Two men lost their lives today while endeavoring to save others. Joseph Keenan was drowned while endeavorng to rescue some men from a house Union averue, across from the Unio station, and Edward Brooks lost his life in Liberty street, where his skill was overturned by an eddy while he was endeavoring to get, another man out of a building. A number of bodies were seen floating down the stream, but are believed to be those of people rowned further up the Kaw, probably at North Topeka. Fully 50 people were brought to th Touth street viaduct during the day by boatmen. None of them had been in great danger, but had remained buildings until weary of the confine ment, and then had signaled for assist ance, which was given as rapidly as possible. Many people are still in the warehouse and office buildings and will remain there until the flood subside They are entirely safe and fairly com-

There is little probability of much greater financial damage than already has been done. There have been some reports of the settling of various large buildings in the wholesale district, but they appear to be restitled in a re-markably even manner and an expert examination will be required to prove that they are in a dangerous condition. The close of another day brought only another night of wretchedness to the thousands of refugees in Kansas City, Kan., without water save for urgent needs, without beds, with the oper part of the town unable to hot se any comfort the horde of refugees, he night bids fair to be merely a repetition of others since the onslaught of the flood.

The wretchedness, however, is more mental than physical, although the dis-comforts due to herding large bodies of people in buildings not built for the purpose, and trying to feed an army without a commissary department, are many. The rise continues to the eastward, and at St. Louis this mornng the stage was 31.2 feet, 1.2 feet above the danger line, From the water now in sight no considerable damage can be done in the vicinity of St. Louis, not over 35 feet of water being at present indicated. Out of St. Louis as far as Dubuque the Mississippi continues to rise slow Keokuk this morning reporting a stage of 18.5 feet, 3.5 feet above the danger line. The lower Arkansas is
